G G
It's another old car that just won't run

G G7
And another damn job. It ain't no fun

C G C G
When the man from the bank comes callin'

G G
He's standin' in the front yard, "Hey Son,

G G7
Is yer momma home?" I play dumb

C G C G
Just digin' in the dirt.

Em C G
It's been a long time, don't quite remember when

Em C D D7
Daddy came home, then he went away again

G G
He's fightin' a war he cannot win

G G7 C
The battle rages deep within his heart

Am D7 G G D D7
And I'm out in the yard, diggin up dirt

G G
They say, boy watch out you'll be like him

G G7
Follow in his steps you're gonna have to swim

C G C G
up stream, or get sucked down

G G
 And mama doesn't know why life's so hard
 G G7
 And I stay out here in the yard
 C G C G
 Just diggin in the dirt

Em C G
 It's been a long time, don't quite remember when
 Em C D D7
 Daddy came home, then he went away again
 G G
 He's fightin' a war and still can't win
 G G7 C
 The battle scar burns deep within his heart
 Am D7 G
 And I'm still in the yard, diggin up dirt

C D7 G
 And in the dark, I'll close my eyes real tight
 E7 Am A7 D D7
 Say a little prayer, things are gonna be alright
 G G
 And I don't know why life's so hard
 G G7
 And I stay out here in the yard
