

Feel so Good (as by Shirley and Lee) 1956

Vs1:

|                      |   |                       |   |
|----------------------|---|-----------------------|---|
| D                    | / | D                     | / |
| Feel so good         |   | now that you're home  |   |
| D                    |   | D                     |   |
| come let me hug you  |   | come let me kiss you  |   |
| D                    |   | D                     |   |
| come let me see what |   | I've been missing     |   |
| A                    | / | A                     | D |
| Feel so good         |   | now that you're home. |   |

Vs2:

|                    |   |                               |   |
|--------------------|---|-------------------------------|---|
| D                  | / | D                             | / |
| Feel so fine       |   | to know that I'm on your mind |   |
| D                  |   | D                             |   |
| Oh what a feeling  |   | to know you're revealing      |   |
| D                  |   | D                             |   |
| Feels so good now, |   | please don't stop now         |   |
| A                  | / | A                             | D |
| Ooh so glad,       |   | now that I've come back home  |   |

Br:

|                            |   |
|----------------------------|---|
| G                          | D |
| All along,                 |   |
| G                          | D |
| as I've been gone          |   |
| G                          | D |
| Now I'm glad that you see, |   |
| E                          | A |
| we were meant to be        |   |

Repeat Vs 1

Back to top for instrumentals,
vocal back in on bridge, vs1 & out