

WILD AND BLUE Performed by John Anderson Written by John Scott Sherrill

Fiddle intro: $\frac{3}{4}$ time G / D G

G G
Way across town, a phone rings off the wall
D G
If you know he ain't home, why do you keep callin'
G G
You're gonna drive yourself crazy and you know that it's true
D G
It's making you wild and blue.

CHORUS:

C G
Wild and blue, it's no wonder
C G D
Look at the things that you do
G G
They could take you up to yonder, honey
D G
You're already wild and blue.

Fiddle break:

In somebody's room on the far side of town
With your mind all made up and the shades all pulled down
Someone is trying to satisfy you
He don't know you're wild and you're blue.

CHORUS

Fiddle break:

It's four in the mornin' and you're all alone
With no place to go why don't you come home
I'll be right here, baby, waitin' for you
I know you've been wild and blue.

CHORUS 2x

Fiddle break and out
