Just a lonely girl from the poor side of the city
C C G G
She was a lonely girl from the poor side of the city.
C C / D / G G
They found her in the river, people said it was a pity.

She came to me, night I was leaving town,
She came to me, night I was leaving town,
Thought I'd be the man, to never let her down.

Turns out, Turns out, I was no better than the rest.
Turns out, Turns out, I was no better than the rest.
Seems I might have left her in quite a nasty mess.

Damn that crazy woman, never thought it'd go that far,
Damn that crazy woman, I should have left her at the bar,
And gone home with little Suzi, and followed my own star.

But I went out with her, and she offered me her hand,
Yea I went out with her, and it messed up my best plan,
Shoulda hung around the club, just listenin' to the band.
[Jam]
