

The Young Girl Said Goodbye

Jim Crozier

Intro: Em Em C B7 4x with stop
Em G B7 Em Em C B7
I put up the phone, 'cause the young girl said good bye.
Em G B7 Em Em C B7
I went looking for a lover, 'cause the young girl said good bye.
A Em
'Round the corner, down the street, I stepped into a room
A Em
Full of people laughin', drinkin', gettin' high.
A Em
By The only empty seat, that woman felt the heat,
A B7
Coming from somewhere down by my thigh,
(no chord) Em Em C B7 2x with stop
'cause the young girl said good bye.
Em G B7 Em Em C B7
We spoke of California And the desert where she cried
Em G B7 Em Em C B7
But New York was her home It's the Perfect Place to Hide.
A Em
'Round the corner, down the street, and up into my room,
A Em
The music drove our passion to the sky
A Em
And Rolling in my bed, we followed where it led
A B7
Coming without ever asking why
A Em
But Oh, the longing for the young girl never passed,
G F#m B7
And, as it happened, the music didn't last,
C
But 'now' is 'in the moment',
G
And it happened all so fast,
B7 (no chord) Em Em C B7
So long ago... When the Young Girl Said "Goodbye".
Screamin solo: Em Em C B7 (many times – hum 8x)
C B7 Em G B7 Em
I went looking for a lover when the young girl said good bye
I had to go and find another when the young girl said good bye
I went lookin', lookin', lookin' when the young girl said good bye
I had to learn to live without her when the young girl said good bye
G B7 Em G B7 Em6/9
When the young girl said goodbye Young girl said goodbye
